

Benefit Year

A benefit year is the 12-month period for which a patient is subscribed to a plan, and during which the payer has agreed to pay for services according to the patient's plan.