

Care Continuum

The care continuum describes the full range of services that a patient may encounter from prenatal care prior to birth to palliative services at end of life. This term also recognizes that care is provided across the full spectrum of healthcare delivery including outpatient, inpatient, home care, rehabilitation, nursing, virtual, and pre- and post-acute care settings.