

FierceHealthcare is Thankful For Yours Truly!

☒ I am amazed and thrilled to have have been named one of FierceHealthcare's "10 Bloggers We Are Thankful For."

I am in delightful company as the other nine bloggers are writers I read and admire. 33Charts is one of my very favorite blogs, both because of the focus on social media in healthcare and because I just really like Dr. V's writing.

There aren't many practice management-related blogs on the web today, but some I recommend are pediatricinc.com (Brandon Betancourt) for insights from a pediatric manager married to a pediatrician, and practicemanagersolutions.com (Rebecca Morehead) for great motivational commentary and practical advice.

Don't forget to stop by www.fiercehealthcare.com and visit their sites on healthcare IT, practice management and finance.
